What leadership moves can we implement to disrupt and dismantle inequitable practices and systems so that all students have equitable access to resources and achieve at high levels?

During this 3-part leadership course, participants will:

- » Deepen understanding of “equity” and “racial equity” related to strengthening student educational outcomes.
- » Name and identify cultural filters, stereotypes, biases and judgments.
- » Engage in experiential learning activities that may be used to engage members of a school community in the work of racial equity that impacts students learning.
- » Examine potential inconsistencies between and among beliefs, language, and actions regarding racial equity in student learning.
- » Identify a core racial equity challenge in their work.
- » Apply new learning to build capacity around engaging in conversations anchored in racial equity.

Intended audience:

School & District Teams, Teacher Leaders, Administrators, and District Leaders
